

QUALITY POLICY

COES is a company that makes the activities of deformation, stamping and welding of tube and sheet for parts destined to the industry.

The organization understand the Quality is the satisfaction and compliance of the requirements, needs and expectations of this clients, wich are considered it with the own personal, the most important people of the company. Therefore, Quality is considered as one of the fundamental pillars of the business strategy.

Management promotes the involvement of all the staff and a fluid comunication among all the the members of the organization to get a best results that promote the evolution of the company, getting a bussines results that ensure continuity and be referent in our sector.

The Quality Policy foresees the constat increase of the trust in our products and services provided to costumers through the complying of the following requirements:

- The increase inside the sector.
- Continuous improvement of the processes and controls.
- Continuous improvement of the costumers service.
- El commitment to comply with the client's esepificacions, legal and reglamentary requirements.

These aspects are materialized in the implementation of this Quality Management System and implantation of Quality objectives that ensure the development of this policy.

To leave evidence of their engagement and involvement in this policy, they signed and approved this document Coes Management and the person in charge of the Q.M.S

COES Management

COES Quality Management

This policy is communicated to all the staff, customers and suppliers, and it will be revised by Coes Management whenever it considered appropriate, to adapt it to any organization change.